- Joseph, Sarah Ann Asay & 3 sons are in this picture
  - Which is Joseph?

“On the Muddy” Utah or Nevada

One of the pictures taken by C. R. Savage was a picture of the group of people with this excursion. A copy of this picture was evidently given to, or bought by Joseph, as it was in the possession of Grandmother Sarah Ann at the time of her death, and given to Parmer Asay, a grandson. This picture was printed in the Deseret News many years ago, and under it was printed: "President Brigham Young and party at mouth of Virgin, March 17, 1870. Others in the party are: Amelia Young, George A. Smith, Bathshebe W. Smith, John Taylor, Erastus Snow, Minerva Snow, Joseph W., Lorenzo D., and Brigham Young Jun., B. S. and Albert C. Young, A. S. Gibbons, John W. Young. Nathaniel V. Jones, John Squires, Joseph Asay, Van Etta. Levi Stewart."

■ See next slide

Not many women and children

- There are five women in the party, but only three are identified. Parmer says that Grandma Asay is the first woman on the right. There are six young fellows in the foreground, the two sitting together on the left may have come from Salt Lake with some of the party, but the four on the right all seem to be barefoot, and it is suspected that they are the Asay boys who came to see the excitement.
