CROCKETT COAT OF ARMS

- SIMILAR BUT NOT THE SAME

THE COATS OF ARMS OF THE CROCKETT FAMILY: ENGLISH-FRENCH-IRISH-SCOTTISH

Crockett

Irish Coat of Arms

Significance of the Irish branch:

Crest: Silver Swan, noted for the altitude of its flight, its grace of motion, its power of wing, and for the fact that it always flies against the wind. It enters the water like a bolt for its food and always gets what it sees after.

Shield: Silver denotes purity and the three stars cadences, i.e., descent from father to son, through three generations. Blue stands for love and fidelity.

Source: The name Swann is taken from Swann, the name of the old English Channel.

Motto: "Since 1714"—Track Crockett.

Crockett

Scottish Coat of Arms

As a Crest, an Armes, three crests of the last in chief, in base a cross.

Crest: A 2-2 sleeping on, spread out.

Motto: "Take Care"—Take care, i.e., "Let sleeping dogs lie."

English Coat of Arms

As three Crow's (Crows) per. Crest: Crow's (Crows) per.

Motto: "Crow not, croak not."
