Ray worked building bridges for the Southern Pacific Railroad with a seam powered rig – a bridge foreman – he built the rail tracks across southern Arizona – Bowie – His crew – Ken says Grampa wasn't ready to retire when they retired him and hung around so they rehired him for a while.

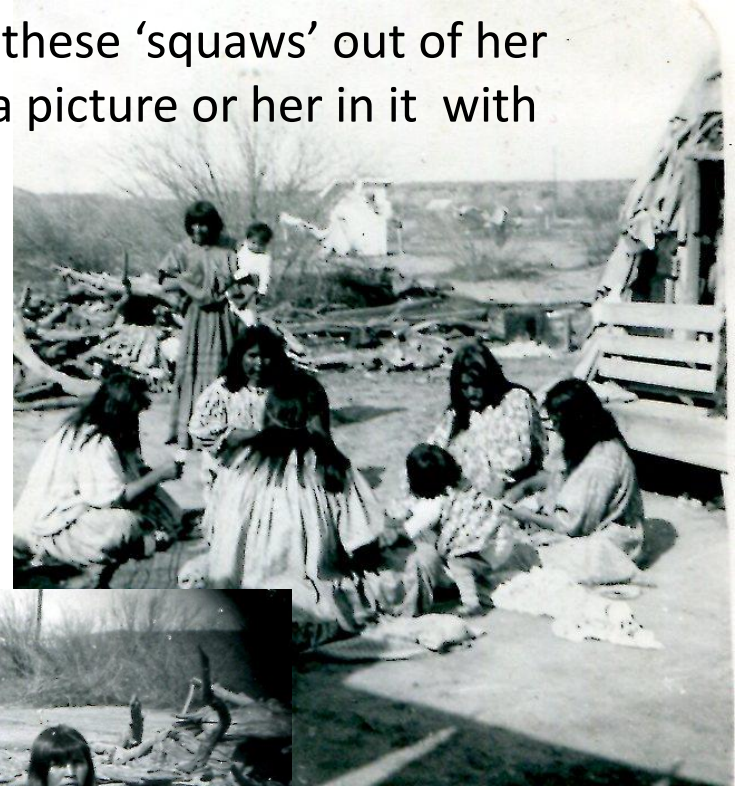

He would take the “Doodle bug” - a two man see-saw type thing he could ride to the nearest train stop.

Ray met many people 'on the gang'

Mabel talked one of these 'squaws' out of her squaw dress. I have a picture of her in it with these ladies.
